

The Heritage Network
Board of Directors
May 16, 2022

Present: Sue Richart, Joe Barreca, Bill Seabright, Kathy Berrigan, Rose Kalamaridas

Brief visit to the Keller House to see Anna Keller's piano

Next meeting: Northport Historical Society Welcome Center on 20 June.

Minutes of the last meeting: Rose moved to accept as amended, Bill seconded. Approved.

Financial Report: We have on hand $2371.55

KFHC: Opened yesterday on the 15th. Discussion about lamprey eels. Louanne Atherley working on a display about women. Fur Trade Festival event for Saturday.

HBC Fort Colville Bicentennial: Warren Saylor discussion about how Native American related how their people passed on their history. Archie Marchand, Okanogan/Tonasket, discussed talking face to face to set up the bicentennial. Friends of the Spokane House are involved in the discussion. He is also in discussion with Tina Wynecoop.

Indian Agency Cabin: Awaiting chinking of cabin to finish

Research Updates: Public Works

Virtual Reality and Library: The Library of Stevens County is applying for a grant from the Washington State Library to obtain virtual reality equipment to show our local history. Discussion about canoes and portage. Sue motioned we agree to partner with the LOSC. Rose seconded. Motion passed.

SCHS projects: They can see the Smokey Bear exhibit and saw Annie Keller's piano.

Northport Historical Society Welcome Center: Guard visited in March for pre-planning for their June visit. High School students took ceilings out, then they took the insulation out.

Fundraiser through an on-line auction house and raised $11,000. Getting donated shrubs and compost.

Clayton-Deer Park: Wally Parker, retired as their editor, had a stroke so no thank you party. Still working on moving the Eagle. CDPHS was able to digitize the nearly 1000 photographs at the Owens Museum located south and east of Deer Park.

Meeting adjourned at 11:15 a.m.