

The Heritage Network
Board of Directors
September 20th, 2021

The meeting was called to order by Joe at 9:30 AM online with Zoom. Provided by Northport Historical Society

Present: Sue Richart, Rose Kalamarides, Joe Barreca, Susan Dechant and Janet Thomas

Financial Report: Treasurer Sue presented the final report.

Next meeting: The meeting was tentatively scheduled for Zoom provided by NEWGS

Minutes of the last meeting: A correction was made in addition to some technical corrections already made by Sue. Rose moved and Sue seconded a motion to approve the minutes as corrected/ Motion carried.

Fort Colville Project: Joe will write an article on In The Stream: An Indian Story for the Silverado. The website has a new emphasis on personalities in the history of the fort. There are new sections to the website with a library, a gallery and a forum. Warren Seyler of the Spokans suggested that we hold a series of events leading up to the actual bicentennial.

Crossroads: The board approved a motion to move the present CrossroadsArchive.net site to Reclaim Hosting. Sue motioned, Rose seconded.

Folding Map: A report about the commissioners in charge of lodging tax monies showed that they neither read the request or understand anything about it.

Historic Colville Indian Agency: The University of Idaho has not returned data about the age of the cabin derived from core samples of the logs. A professor from EWU plans to visit it.

Research Updates: Sue is working on requests for information on the Fruitland Irrigation District and the Little Pend Oreille Wildlife Refuge.

Around the table:

NEWGS: Susan Dechant prepared a report on the 40 year history of the Northeast Washington Genealogical Society for a picnic in Yep Kanum park. It is now on their website, which has a new host and a new look. They have new names to research of soldiers who died during the wars which include recent deployments in Iraq and Afghanistan. The book about the Little Pend Oreille area is in its final stages

Northport: Rose found some interesting historical records about post office boxes with name and country of origin of the applicants plus many other things in her father's workshop. She also found an article in an old newspaper about a 13 year old boy who died while fishing that solved a mystery about his grave.

Meeting Adjourned at 11:00 AM
