

THN Meeting January 17, 2022, 9:30 a.m. via Zoom

Joe Barreca, Susan Dechant, Rose Kalamarides, and Sue Richart, Janet Thomas logged in at 10:10 a.m.

Election: President Joe Barreca, VP Rose Kalamarides; Treasurer: Sue Richart; Secretary Janet Thomas.

Board members discussions. Joe will put board member approval on the February board meeting.

October & November 2021 Minutes reviewed Sue motioned Susan seconded. Minutes approved.

Joe discussed writing articles in the Silverado. He is also looking to work with folks on grant writing.

Joe is busy on the website. He discussed Shawn Brigman's work on sturgeon nosed canoes, David Thompson's Columbia boat. Discussion on Metis.

Indian Agency Cabin we should get the dendrochronology this month.

Research: Schools Sue is working create a list all the school districts based on commissioners' minutes

CDPHS: Clayton Fairgrounds eagle will move in the spring. They are wearing masks at in-person meetings.

Joe: At Northport, Joe mentioned the museum looks good. Rose said the windows are on-hand. They are waiting for weather to improve to install them. They are still looking for hardware. National Guard will be back in the summer. Electrical/plumbing, bathrooms.

Discussion about grants. What is Joe looking for? Rose talked about Innovia. Sue suggested trying for a planning grant.

NeWGS: Little Pend Oreille Lakes book. At Coffee & Books. Good meeting with Washington Rural Heritage with Evan Robb and Caitlan Patterson. Their website is being hosted by Blue Crab and they are working through issues.

SCHS: New exhibits. HVAC work.

Meeting ended about 10:30 a.m.