

Discover History

The Heritage
NETWORK
www.TheHeritageNetwork.org

Members of The Heritage Network. 2010

Cheney, WA—Cheney Historical Museum—Preserving the history of the Marshall, Four Lakes, Cheney, Tyler and Amber history since 1935. Permanent exhibits show pioneer home life, general store, schoolroom, and farm yard. Research materials include photographs, pioneer biographies, scrapbooks and yearbooks. Open May through September, Thursday-Saturday 10am-1 pm other times by appointment. Located at 420 First Street in Cheney. 509-235-2202 www.cheneymuseum.org e-mail: director@cheneymuseum.org.

Chewelah, WA—The Chewelah Museum—Chewelah Historical Museum has an old photo collection, library/research, Indian artifacts, mining exhibits, farm equipment, and a display of wood carvings, which tells the story of Chewelah and its residents. Open 7 days a week Memorial Day weekend thru September at 501 N. 3rd St. www.cityofchewelah.org.

Clayton, WA—The Clayton/Deer Park Historical Society saved the Clayton School & got it on the National Historic Register. It was also remodeled by the DPSD. Our latest project is saving the Eagle (which was produced at the Clayton Terra Cotta factory) that was once on the Armory in downtown Spokane. It was moved to Geiger Field in the 1970s, where it was about to be destroyed. It is mounted on a pedestal at the Clayton Drive In. Web site- claytondeerparkhistoricalsociety.com (509)276-2693

Colville, WA—Stevens County Historical Society—Historical park, museum, The Keller House, mining display, research library and more. Located at 700 N. Wynne St in Colville. Mailing address is PO Box 25, Colville, WA 99114. Phone 509-684-5968. E-mail schs@ultraplix.com. Web page www.stevenscountyhistoricalsociety.org

—Northeast Washington Genealogical Society— The Northeast Washington Genealogical Society, formed in 1981, maintains a genealogical collection in the Colville Public Library consisting of over 800 books, periodicals and microfilm, with a special interest in Stevens, Ferry, and Pend Oreille counties. Library address: 195 S. Oak, Colville (509) 684-6620. www.newgs.org

Deer Park, WA—North Spokane Farm Museum—Also called the Red Shed Museum, located just north of Spokane off Highway 395. “Red Shed” houses farming artifacts & machinery from 1850 to 1950. We feature the largest collection of ironstone china dishes in the Pacific Northwest. Open from 9 AM to 4 PM on Wednesdays through Sundays from April 1 to October 31. Open anytime by appointment. Anniversary Weekend, last Saturday in June. Website www.northspokanefarmmuseum.com. 509-466-2744

Fort Spokane, WA—The Fort Spokane Museum and Visitor Center—For thousands of years, the area was a gathering place for native tribes fishing the rapids of the Spokane River. In 1880, the US Army established a fort about the confluence of the Spokane and Columbia Rivers. In 1898, the military fort was closed. There buildings were then used as an Indian boarding school and tuberculosis hospital. Now, the grounds are open year around. The visitor center and museum are open in the summer and by request. Call for details 509-725-2715 ext. 43. Located 21 miles north of Davenport on Hwy 25.

Greenwood, BC, Canada—Greenwood Museum—Step back in time at the Greenwood Museum to learn about the history of Canada’s smallest city, from the early copper mining days to the internment of the Japanese during WWII. There are also exhibits on the local heritage buildings as well as a gift shop, old photo collection, library/research, and mining exhibit. Open May through October from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily, with extended hours in the months of July and August. Located on Highway 3, 24 miles northwest of Grand Forks. 250-445-6355 or <http://www.greenwoodmuseum.com>, museum@shaw.ca.

Hunters, WA—Hunters Museum—The Hunters Museum is in an old creamery building. They have a large number of old pictures of the town. Visitors can enjoy a 15 minute narrated slide show presentation of the town of Hunters. They have lots of old creamery items and general antiques of the town and its citizens. A small antique and collectable store is located in the front of the museum that helps to support the Hunters Museum. Open June 1-September 30 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on most weekends. Call (509)-722-3910 to make sure a volunteer is available.

Kettle Falls, WA—Kettle Falls Historical Center—3.5 miles west of Kettle Falls on St. Paul's Mission Road, is open weekends May 15-31, daily June-August, and weekends Sept. 1-15, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. The falls (now submerged) were a regional gathering place and salmon fishing site for centuries. KFHC depicts daily life with murals and artifacts of the natives, as well as items used by fur traders arriving in the 1800's. (509) 738-6964

—Kettle Falls Library—The Kettle Falls Public Library holds a collection of over 800 historical photographs of the town of “Old” Kettle Falls, its residents, and of The Kettle Falls. The collection focuses on the years 1891 to 1939. The library is located at 605 Meyers St, Kettle Falls, WA 99114. Phone 509-738-6817 or 738-6861.

Loon Lake, WA—Loon Lake Historical Society—The LLHS owns and operates the Old Schoolhouse which was built in 1929 and is on the National Register of Historic Places. Inside, visitors will find displays of local history, personal history collections, lots of photographs and a gift shop. Open year around, Saturdays 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and Tuesdays from 6 to 8 p.m. www.loonlakehistoricalsociety.com; 509-233-2222.

Northport, WA—Northport Historical Society—The museum is located at 311 Columbia Ave. We have eight historical sites marked with plaques. Open Tuesdays and Thursday from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. 509-732-4431, Website: <http://northporths.homestead.com/>

Republic, WA—Ferry County Historical Society Museum—The Ferry County Historical Society maintain self-touring early historical displays on the local mining, business and Native American history. This includes the Kauffman cabin, oldest miner’s cabin (1896) in the county. Open May 1 to Memorial Day on Wednesdays through Sundays from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Open Daily from Memorial Day through Labor Day from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Open Labor Day through October 31 on Wednesdays through Saturdays from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Contact info Richard Slagle 775-3888 or Lisa Barksdale 779-4412.

Spokane, WA—Spokane Valley Heritage Museum —Open year round from 11am - 4pm Wed - Sat. Exhibits are always changing and currently include: Aviation History: "On a Wing & a Prayer", One room schoolhouse exhibit, Telecommunications exhibit, Agricultural Legacy Exhibit, 1930's Filing Station and so much more. Annual events include the Tea & History Program the 2nd Saturday of November and Valley Heritage Days the 3rd weekend in May. Phone: 509-922-4570, Website: www.valleyheritagecenter.org, Email: spokanevalleymuseum@gmail.com. Adults $6, Seniors 55+ $5, Students 7 - 18, $3

Springdale, WA—Geronimo’s Food & Spirits & Catering—Home of the “World’s Smallest Museum.” Local residents have donated pictures and items giving visitors a great history of Springdale. Lots of Indian artifacts. Located at 7 Shaffer Street in Springdale, Washington. Phone 509-258-4211. Open 8 a.m. to 9 p.m., with the lounge open until midnight.

Trail, BC, Canada—The Trail Museum—The museum is located in the Trail Memorial Centre at 1051 Victoria Street. Although modest in size, it contains a wealth of artifacts, photos and unique historical items describing the history of Trail. Open June through August, 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Phone 250-364-0829, history@trail.ca. Website: www.trailhistory.com.